

Aqueous Products

Throughout our history, Superior Solvents and Chemicals has provided its customers with the most effective products available. Our extensive line of aqueous products reflects our ongoing commitment to offering the best chemicals for your needs – backing that up with professional, knowledgeable support.

Performance

Superior manufactures its own line of industrial cleaners and additional specialized solutions. Many are high-performing alternatives to traditional cleaning solvents and provide safety and environmental benefits.

Although our collection of products is extensive, your needs may require reformulation to best meet your specific circumstances. Superior's staff of chemists stands ready to adjust our formulations or to develop a new product so the solution you receive is ideal for you.

In addition, Superior will work with you to determine the best equipment system and maintenance schedule for chemical use to maximize performance, economy and safety.
